

RESUME' FOR JONAS LYBORG

EXPERIENCE:

2006 – Present

Independent Maritime Consulting Ltd., FL/AL
Principal Surveyor

Organizing, coordinating and supervising Hull & Machinery and P&I Surveys on behalf of Scandinavian and German Underwriters and Insurance Brokers.

Carrying out Surveys, Prepare Repair Specifications for Tendering, Negotiate Repair Costs. Issue Survey Reports, Claims discussions.

Acting as Owner's representative for large fleet of container vessels.

2000 – 2006

JL Maritime Services Inc., USA
Founder and Owner

Surveying of Hull & Machinery, P&I and Dock Damage on behalf of Scandinavian and German Underwriters and Insurance Brokers.

Condition Surveys, Preparation of Repair Specifications for Tendering, Negotiate Repair Costs. Prepare Survey Reports, Claims discussions.

Acting as Owner's representative for large fleet of container vessels.

1989 - 2000

The Swedish Club, Gothenburg & Hong Kong
Staff surveyor and Technical Manager (H.K.)

Surveying Hull & Machinery/P&I on behalf of The Swedish Club. Damage and Condition Surveys, Prepare Repair Specifications for Tendering, Negotiate Repair Costs, Prepare Survey Reports.

1986 – 1989

The Swedish S.U., Gothenburg
Head of Safety and Environmental Department

Responsible for Safety and Environmental questions including organizing Maritime Occupational Safety and Health Organizations for Seafarers.

Training of Owners, Managements representatives, Officers and Crew members In Safety and Occupational Health questions.

Lecturing at Maritime Universities.

Vessel inspection and maritime accident investigations.

1982 – 1986

The Swedish Maritime Inspectorate, Norrköping
Deputy Head and Head of Department for Maritime Safety and Working Environment

Vessel inspection and surveys, type approval of equipment and approval of drawings. Preparation and issuing of new regulations and legislation. Safety and Environment training of ship Owners/Managers/Safety Delegates. Lecturing at Maritime Universities.

Responsible for training and monitoring of officers and crew on vessel's for nuclear waste transportation.

Appointed by the Administration to:

- Swedish Delegations to IMO
- Swedish Maritime Fire Protection Committee
- Maritime Accident Investigation Committee
- Swedish Maritime Working and Safety Counsel

Appointed Representative for Maritime Matters to the Department of Labor, Committee for Asbestos Regulation.

1982

SECURITAS, Sweden.
Area Manager

Area Manager with major European Security Company.
Part of Task Force for Protection of Nuclear Power plants

1981

County of Borås, Sweden.
Deputy Head of Department

Technical/economical operation, supervision and maintenance of county utility services for freshwater production and pumping systems.

1976 – 1980

SALÉN SHIPPING COMPANY, Sweden
Seagoing engineer

Seagoing engineer on reefer vessels.
Involved in new building projects.

1965 – 1976

BROSTRÖM SHIPPING COMPANY, Sweden
Cadet/seagoing engineer/new building supervisor

Started as engineer cadet on board the company's ocean going vessels.

During this period also trained at shipyards, electrical companies, workshops etc.

Seagoing engineer in different positions on a variety of the company's vessels.

1973 New building superintendent for bulk carriers in Germany.

EDUCATION:

1968 – 1969

Second Engineer, Gothenburg Maritime College, Sweden

1969 – 1971

Chief Engineer, Gothenburg Maritime College, Sweden

In addition to the above, Jonas Lyborg has during his career attended a number of courses including the following:

- 2003 ISPS Course, Seattle, USA
- 2003 HUET Course, La Fayette, USA
- 1997 ISM/ISO Maritime Auditor/Lead Auditor Course, Maritime Centre, Warsash, U.K.
- 1996 Port State Control Course, University of Wales, Cardiff, U.K.
- 1996 Marine Underwriters – Hull Course, DNV, Norway
- 1994 Internal Auditor Course, DNV, Singapore
- 1994 ISM knowledge, DNV, Singapore.
- 1989 European/ILO Special Training Course, six-week legislative training in Geneva.
- 1983 Technical Deep Diving Information Course